2 teens charged with tagging graffiti in Northeast Daniel Borunda / El Paso Times Updated: 05/04/2010

EL PASO - Two teenagers were arrested after allegedly caught tagging graffiti soon after 1 a.m. Tuesday, El Paso police said.

Angel Estrada, 19, and Gregorio Castro, 18, are accused of vandalizing a wall in the 6000 block of Sun Valley Drive in the Northeast. Both live a block away.

Estrada and Castro face misdemeanor graffiti charges.

A jail log showed Estrada was released from jail Tuesday night on $750 bail.

Castro remained held in lieu of bonds totaling $1,300, police said.

There have been three arrests for graffiti in the Northeast in the past two days.
